Amira Choice – Forest Lake

Amira Choice has demonstrated strong environmental stewardship through the maintenance and restoration of its stormwater treatment pond and filtration basin in Forest Lake. After approximately 10 years of operation, the facility required significant maintenance to continue functioning as intended and providing important stormwater treatment benefits.

