Steve Schmaltz

Steve Schmaltz has demonstrated an exceptional commitment to watershed stewardship through more than 15 years of volunteer service through the Citizen-Assisted Monitoring Program. Steve has collected water quality samples from Forest Lake throughout the open-water season every year since 2011. His long-standing involvement has provided the District with valuable information and support for protecting and improving local water resources.

