Terry and Mary Jo Pohlkamp

Terry and Mary Jo Pohlkamp have demonstrated an outstanding commitment to protecting Bone Lake through their recently completed shoreline restoration and their continued stewardship of the lake. Their project restored more than 100 feet of shoreline by replacing traditional turf grass with native, deep-rooted perennial vegetation and incorporating bioengineered practices designed to stabilize the shoreline, reduce erosion, improve habitat, and protect water quality.

